Position: Tristan Lawson Distinguished Fellow in Child Nutrition and Community Engagement
Faculty: Temerty Faculty of Medicine
Department: Joannah and Lawson Centre for Child Nutrition
Campus: St. George (downtown Toronto)

Posting Date: July 21, 2022
Closing Date: August 17, 2022

Description:
The Joannah & Brian Lawson Centre for Child Nutrition, at the University of Toronto is seeking a highly motivated physician or scientist with an interest in nutrition and community health. The Distinguished Fellow will study community-driven responses to inequities and vulnerabilities through addressing child nutrition needs at multiple levels in Canada.

Qualification include:
- Must hold a medical degree, or PhD in a relevant area
- Either hold or be eligible to hold an academic appointment at the rank of assistant professor or higher
- Experience in nutritional sciences in family medicine and/or the community
- Must be a self-starter, with ability to work independently and collaboratively with a team, and demonstrate strong interpersonal communication
- Must also have strong organizational and problem-solving skills, excellent time management skills to coordinate multiple projects

Key Duties:
- Scoping review of current civic systems and government responses to inequities in quality of diet and access to nutritious foods in Canadian children in diverse groups
- Evaluate the positive impact of this initiatives on children’s nutrition and well-being

This is a two-year appointment, with the possibility of extension upon a successful review of the appointment and funding available. Interested individuals should submit a cover letter documenting their interest and qualifications for the project and a detailed CV to the attention of: Dr. Chris Tomlinson, Academic Lead, Child Nutrition Medical Education of the Joannah & Brian Lawson Centre for Child Nutrition, child.nutrition@utoronto.ca

For questions about the position, please contact child.nutrition@utoronto.ca

Remuneration for the appointment as Distinguished Fellow will be commensurate with the qualifications and experience of the successful candidate.

Diversity Statement:
The University of Toronto is strongly committed to diversity within its community and especially welcome applications from racialized persons/person of colour, women, Indigenous/Aboriginal People of North America, persons with disabilities, LGBTQ2S+ persons, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of ideas.

Accessibility Statement:

The University strives to be an equitable and inclusive community, and proactively seeks to increase diversity among its community members. Our values regarding equity and diversity are linked with our unwavering commitment to excellence in the pursuit of our academic mission.

The University is committed to the principles of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA). As such, we strive to make our recruitment, assessment and selection processes as accessible as possible and provide accommodations as required for applicants with disabilities.